Gospel: John 2:1-11

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from—although the servers who had drawn the water knew—, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one; but you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs at Cana in Galilee and so revealed his glory, and his disciples began to believe in him.

"Sacrament of Initiation: The Eucharist"

Session 19 with Fr. John

Tuesday, January 21, 6:30pm at St. James

The sacrament of the Eucharist lies at the very heart of the Catholic faith. When we receive Holy Communion, we are united with Jesus in the most intimate way possible here on earth. For the Eucharist is the Body and Blood of Christ. The almighty God, Creator of the Universe, humbles Himself so that He can become one with us each time we attend Mass and receive communion. As we explore the Church's teachings on the Eucharist, Fr. John will help open our minds to a deeper understanding of the mysteries and fill our hearts with a deeper love for our Lord. Come and See!

A Note About Bringing Young Men To The Conference

Conference speakers develop their talks mindful of adult men and the contemporary issues impacting their lives. Many fathers, grandfathers, and guardians bring young men ten and over, finding the conference setting ideal for candid and meaningful conversations about tough topics. As an example, suppose the subject matter explores God's plan for our sexuality and how powerful cultural forces can distort His plan. If that type of content concerns you, we recommend the young person not attend.
