GOSPEL: St. John 1:29-34

John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. He is the one of whom I said, 'A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.' I did not know him, but the reason why I came baptizing with water was that he might be made known to Israel." John testified further, saying, "I saw the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven and remain upon him. I did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'On whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain, he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.' Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God."

RCIA Session #17 Sacrament of the Eucharist: Bread for the Journey Presenter: Fr. John

In this session, we will explore that, as the new manna, the Eucharist is the true Bread from Heaven to sustain us on our journey toward Heaven. It would be foolish to go on a journey without taking any provisions. This is even more true for our spiritual journey. To say that the Eucharist is our spiritual food is not a metaphor. It truly nourishes and sustains our souls, just as physical food does for our bodies. The climax of the Mass is when we are united to God in Holy Communion. When Mass ends, we are once again strengthened to bring forth the Gospel to the world.

Join us! Tuesday, January 17 at 7pm at St. James Catholic Church

Contact Kim Barbour, RCIA coordinator at 952-270-4665 or rcia@stjohnbartlesville.org
