GOSPEL: GOSPEL: St. John 2:13-25

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. At this the Jews answered and said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking about the temple of his body. Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they came to believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken. While he was in Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, many began to believe in his name when they saw the signs he was doing. But Jesus would not trust himself to them because he knew them all, and did not need anyone to testify about human nature. He himself understood it well.

YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH

Because of Pope Francis' declaration for a Year of St. Joseph, Bishop David Konderla will consecrate our Diocese to St. Joseph on Friday, March 19, 6pm, at the Holy Family Cathedral in Tulsa. Bishop Konderla is also asking us to make novena to St. Joseph beginning Wednesday, March 10. Resources for the novena and other prayers and devotions in honor of St. Joseph may be found at the Diocese's Alcuin Institute webpage: alcuininstitute.org/year-of-st-joseph.

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH

It is reported that Pope Francis personally uses the following prayer to St. Joseph.

Glorious Patriarch Saint Joseph, whose power makes the impossible possible, come to my aid in these times of anguish and difficulty. Take under your protection the serious and troubling situations that I commend to you, that they may have a happy outcome. My beloved father, all my trust is in you. Let it not be said that I invoked you in vain, and since you can do everything with Jesus and Mary, show me that your goodness is as great as your power.
