GOSPEL: St. Luke 6:17, 20-26

Jesus came down with the Twelve and stood on a stretch of level ground with a great crowd of his disciples and a large number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon. And raising his eyes toward his disciples he said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for the kingdom of God is yours. Blessed are you who are now hungry, for you will be satisfied. Blessed are you who are now weeping, for you will laugh. Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, and denounce your name as evil on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice and leap for joy on that day! Behold, your reward will be great in heaven. For their ancestors treated the prophets in the same way. But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. Woe to you who are filled now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will grieve and weep. Woe to you when all speak well of you, for their ancestors treated the false prophets in this way."

Seeking Volunteers & Donors The Lighthouse Outreach Center

If interested in donating, volunteering, or for more information, in this ministry of providing a meal the first Monday of each month. Before each month's first Monday, we will print in the bulletin a list of ingredients needed for the month.

Contacts: Nita Swan 918-766-2661, Eva Boatwright 918-440-8894. Monetary donations are also very much appreciated. Please make checks payable to St. James and indicate Lighthouse in the memo section. Thank you to everyone who donated food or money this last month. It was greatly appreciated!

RCIA - Forgiven: The Transforming Power of Confession "Embraced in Mercy-The Rite Explained"

Presenter: Fr. John

When Jesus told his Apostles after the Resurrection, "If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven," he gave them authority to bestow the Father's tangible mercy to all generations that follow. As the priest, given the power through Apostolic succession to forgive sins in Jesus' name, we can be sure that we are truly forgiven our trespasses, as long as we come with contrite hearts and repentance. Fr. John, in this session, will guide us step-by-step through the deeper meaning of every aspect of the Rite-what it is, why we do it, and how it impacts our life.

Join us! Tuesday, February 15th at 7pm in
Fr. Lynch Hall
