GOSPEL: St. Mark 5:21-43

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him, and he stayed close to the sea. One of the synagogue officials, named Jairus, came forward. Seeing him he fell at his feet and pleaded earnestly with him, saying, "My daughter is at the point of death. Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live." He went off with him, and a large crowd followed him and pressed upon him.

There was a woman afflicted with hemorrhages for twelve years. She had suffered greatly at the hands of many doctors and had spent all that she had. Yet she was not helped but only grew worse. She had heard about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak. She said, "If I but touch his clothes, I shall be cured." Immediately her flow of blood dried up. She felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction. Jesus, aware at once that power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who has touched my clothes?" But his disciples said to Jesus, "You see how the crowd is pressing upon you, and yet you ask, 'Who touched me?'" And he looked around to see who had done it. The woman, realizing what had happened to her, approached in fear and trembling. She fell down before Jesus and told him the whole truth. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction." While he was still speaking, people from the synagogue official's house arrived and said, "Your daughter has died; why trouble the teacher any longer?" Disregarding the message that was reported, Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." He did not allow anyone to accompany him inside except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." And they ridiculed him. Then he put them all out. He took along the child's father and mother and those who were with him and entered the room where the child was. He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha koum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded. He gave strict orders that no one should know this and said that she should be given something to eat.

FAITH FORMATION CONFERENCE (formerly Catechetical Conference), August 20-21, at the Tulsa Renaissance Hotel and Convention Center. Registration is now open. Details and registration are available at www.dioceseoftulsa.org/faith-formation-conference. This year's theme: "Reason, Science and Divine Revelation", presented by speakers: Fr. Robert Spitzer (live online), Dr. Stacy Trasancos, Bishop Daniel Mueggenborg and Prof. Ferdinand Casanova. As in the past, sessions will be offered in Spanish. A hybrid registration is $25 for in person and online access to keynote talks after the conference is over. The main day of the conference is Saturday, August 21, from 8:30am-5pm. Orientation for newly hired or volunteer leaders of parish ministries (CRE, DRE, RCIA, etc.) is Friday, August 20, from 4-6pm. Those who assumed leadership within the past 2 years are encouraged to attend. Register for the orientation when registering for the conference. A special reception for rural participants will be held 6-8pm, Friday, August 20 at the hotel. A block of rooms has been reserved for the faithful coming in from rural parishes. Those interested in more information regarding the rooms for members of rural parishes should call the Office of Religious Formation at 918-307-4904. The conference will also feature many vendors and organizations from our community. We look forward to seeing you there!

CHANGE FOR LIFE! During the month of June, the Knights of Columbus are conducting their second annual fundraiser to support the pro-life movement after missing last year because of the COVID pandemic. All proceeds will be used to support The Cottage in their ministry to provide pregnancy tests, ultrasounds, counsel mothers to be against abortion, and, to provide a maternity house and resources in Bartlesville for expectant mothers - all free of cost. During the first two weeks of June, Knights will be distributing "Change for Life" cups at St. John and St. James. Please take the cups home and fill them with coins, cash and/or checks and bring them back to Mass during the month of June to deposit in the Change for Life collection buckets at both St. John and St. James. Checks should be written to "The Cottage". The Knights and The Cottage appreciate your generosity!
