

Baptism of the Lord

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove.

Luke 3:21-22

Gospel: Luke 3:15-15, 21-22

The people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ. John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire." After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, Heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

"Sacraments of Matrimony & Holy Orders "

Session 18 with Deacon Dan

Tuesday, January 14, 6:30pm at St. James

The sacraments of Marriage and Holy Orders are fundamentally about mission. Though differing in scope and nature, both confer a special grace of a particular mission in the Church to serve and build up the People of God. In the eyes of God, it is the married couple who are the foundation of human society; they testify to their belief that God has called them to this love and entrusted it to them as their primary mission in life. Through the sacrament of Holy Orders, men are conformed in their very souls to the person of Christ and to serve the mission of the Church. When people see and come to know their deacon or priest, they are to see and come to know Christ. Come and See!

A Note About Bringing Young Men To The Conference

Conference speakers develop their talks mindful of adult men and the contemporary issues impacting their lives. Many fathers, grandfathers, and guardians bring young men ten and over, finding the conference setting ideal for candid and meaningful conversations about tough topics. As an example, suppose the subject matter explores God's plan for our sexuality and how powerful cultural forces can distort His plan. If that type of content concerns you, we recommend the young person not attend.
