GOSPEL: St. Luke 4:1-13

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and when they were over he was hungry. The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread." Jesus answered him, "It is written, One does not live on bread alone." Then he took him up and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a single instant. The devil said to him, "I shall give to you all this power and glory; for it has been handed over to me, and I may give it to whomever I wish. All this will be yours, if you worship me." Jesus said to him in reply, "It is written You shall worship the Lord, your God, and him alone shall you serve."

Then he led him to Jerusalem, made him stand on the parapet of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written: He will command his angels concerning you, to guard you, and: With their hands they will support you, lest you dash your foot against a stone." Jesus said to him in reply, "It also says, You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test." When the devil had finished every temptation, he departed from him for a time.

RCIA - "A Catholic Moral Vision"

Presenter: Deacon Charlie

God placed in the human heart a desire for beatitude—for true happiness—which is found only in Him. His moral law is the pathway to happiness. Virtue brings true freedom because it helps a person rise above his selfish desires and give the best of himself to God and to others. Reconciliation and grace offer the strength necessary to overcome sin and grow in virtue. With the Church, it is not difficult to become a saint. Do we believe it?

Join us! Tuesday, March 8th at 7pm in Fr. Lynch Hall

FAITH & WORKS ANNUAL APPEAL

The Faith & Works appeal reminds us, that, together, we can do more to help with services and ministry resources than any single parish can do alone. Please remember to put the name of your parish at the top of the donor form when you mail in your card or bring it to the church office.

Thank you for being a part of our Diocese and for contributing to this appeal. God bless you!

Please pray for the repose of the soul of parishioner Edward Joseph Gehringer, who passed away on Sunday, February 27. His family fondly remembers his long-time relationship with Fr. Bill Skeehan. Funeral services, including a military honor guard for his service in the Marines, are pending. Edward will be interred at the Fort Gibson National Cemetery. Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord.
